PROFILE

With over two decades of experience in the public and private sectors, I am a seasoned professional in managing stakeholder relationships and coordinating complex processes. I excel in heading public offices, aiming for optimum results while developing programmes and enhancing experiences. I have broad industry experience that spans teaching, governance, policy, research, and legal. My research interests include international trade finance (MSMEs), business and human rights, regional integration, banking regulations and reforms, local government and development law, environmental and climate governance and financing, and civil justice reforms in Africa. My research methodologies have predominantly been qualitative and pragmatic approaches.
